

Office of the Provost

Committees 2020-2021

Advisory Committee for Postdoctoral Affairs

Purpose:

The primary mission of this committee is to improve the postdoctoral experience at Yale through the development and promotion of sound postdoctoral mentoring practices. The committee also serves as a valuable resource to advise my office on postdoctoral training, career development, and other factors that have the potential to enhance postdoctoral life at the University. I am encouraged by the progress the committee has made since it was first convened, and look forward to it continuing this important work during the upcoming year.

Chair: Elias Lolis

Budget Advisory Group (BAG)

Purpose:

Members of the Budget Advisory Group attend all budget meetings and advise the Provost on decisions related to the budget.

Committee Members:

- Steve Berry
- Melvin Chen
- Judy Chevalier
- Jennifer Herdt
- Pericles Lewis

Carbon Offsets Oversight Committee

Purpose:

As you may know, the university will need carbon offsets to meet its climate goals. A carbon offsets working group, led by Dean Takahashi, will manage and implement the offsets program. The president's committee will govern the work of this group, ensuring Yale obtains reasonable-quality offsets as economically as possible and in sufficient quantity to reach its carbon neutrality goals. The committee will approve investment guidelines as well as individual purchases (after due diligence performed by Dean's working group). The committee's approval will serve as a formal recommendation to the appropriate university official to execute the relevant agreement(s) on behalf of the university.

Chair: Steve Murphy

Committee Members:

- David Bercovici
- Amy Chivetta
- Matt Kotchen
- Timothy Pavlis

Concussion Management Working Committee

Purpose:

The Concussion Management Working Committee develops a concussion management protocol for Athletics and Yale Health and oversees associated issues involved in the management of concussions suffered by student-athletes.

- Stephanie Arlis-Mayor
- Victoria Chun
- Jason Cordone
- Ann-Marie Guglieri
- Caroline Hendel
- Burgwell Howard
- Nancy Loucks
- Jennifer McCarthy
- Michael Rigsby

Conflict of Interest Committee

Purpose:

This Committee is convened in accordance with the Yale University Policy on Conflict of Interest (the Policy) to advise the University leadership regarding the implementation of the Policy and to review individual disclosures of external activities submitted by faculty, and by non-faculty personnel and students who are engaged in research. In reviewing disclosures, the Committee is convened in accordance with the Yale University Policy on Conflict of Interest (the Policy) to advise the University leadership regarding the implementation of the Policy and to review individual disclosures of external activities submitted by faculty, and by non-faculty personnel and students who are engaged in research. In reviewing disclosures, the committee identifies apparent and actual conflicts of interest and determines means whereby these conflicts can be eliminated or appropriately managed to ensure that the University is in compliance with the Policy and with relevant federal regulations.

Human Embryonic Stem Cell Oversight Committee (ESCRO)

Purpose:

The ESCRO was convened to explore and address the many ethical, scientific, and policy questions associated with human embryonic stem cell research and to oversee the derivation and use of human embryonic and other human totipotent and pluripotent stem cell lines at the University and/or by Yale investigators. The ESCRO reviews research proposals involving human embryonic/toti-pluripotent cell lines (hES research); monitors and promotes compliance of hES research with all relevant regulations, policies, and guidelines; maintains registries of hES research conducted at Yale and hES cell lines derived or imported by University investigators; and facilitates the education of investigators and research personnel involved in hES research in related ethical, legal, and policy issues. The ESCRO must draw upon expertise from a variety of disciplines to exercise its responsibilities.

Co-Chair: Stephen Latham, Co-Chair: Pasquale Patrizio

Institution for Social and Policy Studies Executive Committee (ISPS)

Purpose:

The Executive Committee is an important sounding board for the provost and for Jacob Hacker in his role as ISPS's director. In the model of other academic executive committees at Yale, this group will provide valuable perspectives on a range of topics to do with ISPS's strategic direction; program development; academic partnerships; budget; and other matters. The committee serves as an advisory council that can bring very specific recommendations to our attention, but does not set policy. Faculty oversight committees have the vital function of ensuring the scholarly integrity of all programs and activities that bear the Yale name. We have conceived this committee's membership to be broadly reflective of Yale's education and research mission, and I am grateful to you for considering this additional but important task. If you accept this invitation, Jacob will be contacting you to schedule the initial meeting soon.

Chair: Jacob Hacker

Committee Members:

- Anne Alstott
- Joseph Altonji
- Steven Berry
- John Dovidio
- Alan Gerber
- Gregory Huber
- Grace Kao
- Jennifer Richeson

Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC)

Purpose:

The University relies upon the IACUC to ensure that the care and use of animals involved in Yale's research initiatives are humane, appropriate, and in compliance with relevant regulations and policies.

- Committee Members: Confidential Member list

Institutional Review Boards (IRBs)

Purpose:

Yale University's Human Research Protection Program (HRPP) maintains Institutional Review Boards (IRBs) to provide the ethical review and oversight of its human research activities. The IRBs have the authority to grant exemption from review, approve, disapprove, require modification in research protocols and monitor research to ensure that the rights and welfare of research participants are protected. The IRBs apply the highest standards promulgated by Federal and State regulation and guidance as well as accreditation through The Association for the Accreditation of Human Research Protection Programs, Inc. (AAHRPP). View a detailed list of committee members.

Jackson Institute Transitional Board

Purpose:

The Transitional Board provides faculty governance for the Jackson Institute as it makes the transition to school status. The most important role of the Board will be to appoint a permanent tenured faculty for the Jackson School, which we hope to open in the fall of 2022.

Radioactive Drug Research Committee (RDRC)

Purpose:

- This committee ensures the University's compliance with federal and state regulations as well as University policies regarding the administration of radioactive drugs to humans for scientific objectives, prior to FDA approval and/or use under an Investigational New Drug (IND). View a detailed list of committee members.

Radioactive Investigational Drug Committee (RIDC)

Purpose:

The Yale Radioactive Investigational Drug Committee (RIDC) ensures the appropriate use of all human subject research protocols involving the use of investigational radioactive drugs with an IND, amended IND or an FDA allowed IND exemption (as well as the use of FDA-approved radiopharmaceuticals.) Subject to the Yale University's Institutional Review Board's final approval, the RIDC has the authority to approve, disapprove or require modifications to the protocol, consent form, and other study related documents related to the use of radiopharmaceuticals in human subjects for research. View a detailed list of committee members.

Review Committee for the Faculty

Purpose:

This committee plays an extremely important role in ensuring the integrity and fairness of our appointments process and other faculty policies. Panels selected from the committee meet only when complaints are forwarded for consideration. Although we have no way to anticipate how often or even if these panels will be meeting this year, we must have the committee standing ready to convene panels and decide these important matters should they arise during the course of the year. The procedures of the committee are described in the Faculty Handbook, Chapters III.L and III.M. You can read this online at <http://provost.yale.edu/faculty-handbook>.
